and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Canadian Reunion—The Canadian association meets this evening, at 48 east South Temple street.

Jesse H. White Resigns—Jesse H. White of the Utah Fuel company has resigned to accept the position of general sales agent of the Consolidated Fuel company.

Waiting for Surveyor—As soon as the county surveyor places the stakes, the Utah Light & Railway company will begin track laying from the Murray-Midvale line.

Lecture on "Archaeology"—Prof. Mitchell Carroll of the Washington University of Washington, D. C., will lecture next Friday evening, at Rowland hall on "Archaeology and Antiquities."

Service at St. Mary's—The body of Mrs. Honora Gleason will reach Salt Lake Wednesday morning, when funeral arrangements will be made. The service is to be held in St. Mary's cathedral.

Application for Water—The Sunny-side Reservoir Irrigated Lands and Live Stock company has filed application with the state engineer for 1,600 acre feet of water from Cottonwood creek in Carbon county.

Starts on Concert Tour—Fred C. Graham left Monday night on a concert tour through the southern part of the state, with the intent to assist him at the several localities where he sings. Mr. Graham will be absent 10 days.

Deserved Bigger Audience—A fair sized audience listened Monday evening, to Edward Elliott lecture in Barrett hall, in review of a number of plays now upon the dramatic boards. The lecture was interesting and worthy of a large audience.

Eldredge Reunion—Monday, 33 children, grandchildren and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Eldredge, Sr., to do honor to the 55th natal day of Mrs. Eldredge. A delightful evening was spent in games, recounting old reminiscences and partaking of the refreshments.

Favors Open Air Exercises—The graduating class of the Salt Lake high school is proposing to hold its coming class day exercises on the campus, under the great trees. This is the custom at Yale, Harvard and Princeton and is more enjoyable than when held within the narrow confines of an auditorium.

Medical Society—In Session—At Monday evening's meeting of the Salt Lake County Medical society, the communication from the Federation of Women's clubs relative to enforcement of the expropriation ordinance, was endorsed. Dr. Rockwell of Murray read a scientific paper on fevers, which was discussed by the medical talent present.

F. C. Keller Critically Ill—The condition of F. C. Keller, councilman of Mantu, who was operated on at the Groves L. D. S. hospital several weeks ago for appendicitis, is still very critical, he having suffered a relapse this week. His family was sent for and is in attendance at the bedside of the patient, who is apparently no better today. His chances of recovery are seemingly very remote.

Overcome by Gasoline Fumes—John R. Gray, a driver for a local cleaning company, was overcome by the fumes of gasoline Monday afternoon, and for a time was a very sick man. Gray went into the gasoline room and when employees of the company saw his team hitched near the building and Gray was not to be seen, some one went into the gasoline room and found Gray stretched on the floor. He was taken to his home, 525 Bridge street and will be all right again in a day or two.

Christian Union Meeting—At Monday evening's monthly meeting of the Salt Lake Christian Union, the resignation of Homer L. Robinson as president was received and accepted, the vacancy then being filled by the choice of Vice-President Rowland Mumford of the Baptist church. A. E. Hurd of the Liberty Park Methodist church was then elected president. It was decided to hold a general meeting of all the young people's societies of the city churches on the evening of the second Sunday in April, at the First Methodist church, and Christian Endeavor plans were ordered for members of the State Prison C. E. society.

Zion's Savings Bank & Trust Co. Transacts a general trust business and pays 4 per cent interest on savings deposits. Joseph L. Smith, president; Anthony H. Lund Vice President; O. C. Beebe cashier.

POLITE BURGLAR.

When Discovered in Kitchens by Mrs. L. D. Alder He Duff's Hat.

A polite robber entered the home of Mrs. L. D. Alder, 329 First avenue, Monday night, by cutting a small hole in the kitchen window and then releasing the fastenings. When the circular piece of glass fell to the floor Mrs. Alder was awakened and went into the kitchen to investigate. She was startled to find a man in the room. The robber removed his hat and, with a bow, said:

"Do not be frightened, madam, because I am not going to do you any harm." The fellow then opened the kitchen door and fled. Mrs. Alder notified the police, but they could find no trace of him, although Mrs. Alder furnished a good description. Nothing was taken from the house.

A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar-proof vaults of the Salt Lake Security & Trust Co., 32-34 Main street, $2.00 per year.

RIFLEMEN SHOW MARKED ADVANCE

Annual Report of Small Arms
Practise of National Guard Filed.

SIGNAL CORPS HEADS LIST

Its Figure of Merit More Than Double
That of Its Nearest Competitor.

Marksmanship in the National Guard of Utah has shown a decided upward tendency since the state has had the use of its own rifle range at Bonnevile, a few miles north of this city. The report for the year 1909 has just been completed and filed in the office of Adjutant General E. A. Westwood and shows a marked advance over the results of the preceding year. Honors for the year were captured by the Signal Corps. With a strength of 26 men during the firing season, three experts, two sharpshooters, marksmen, seven first class, two second class, one third class and six fourth class men are shown on the report of this organization. The fourth class men are those who were not on the range during the firing season. Judges for excellence in marksmanship are issued to experts, sharpshooters and marksmen.

The figure of merit, by which the relative standing of organizations is determined, shows the Signal Corps to have attained the coveted position as best leaders for the year with a standing of 76.32. The nearest organization is company G, First Infantry, stationed at Mantu, with 37.25. The organizations take rank as follows:

Signal Corps, Salt Lake.
Company A, Mantu.
Field and staff, First Infantry.
Company B, Ogden.
First battery, Salt Lake.
Company H, Salt Lake.
Company E, Richmond.
Company D, M. Pleasant.
Company C, Salt Lake.
Company G, Ephraim.
Company A, Nephi.

The following table shows the results of firing by organizations and the company figure of merit:
